CITY. Thanksgiving was celebrated in many ways. The Burglars' Club stole the "makings" for the dinner, the fat and lean ham, sausages, roasts, and turkeys, as an ideal Thanksgiving. More than 8000 people were invited to this year's Thanksgiving.

WASHINGTON. A neutrality conference has been suggested to the United States by several South American States.

Our navy is too large for its personnel of officers and something must be done.

Colombian Minister declares his country is making every effort to maintain strict neutrality.

Annual Pan-American Thanksgiving peace celebration held at St. Patrick's Church.

MEXICO. Gen. Villa is reported to be using extreme caution before entering Mexico City, evidently fearing a trap.

Carranza has arrived at Vera Cruz and will proceed with his campaign against Villa.

POWER SOUNDED.

Already some of the powers of Europe have been sounded on these propositions and it is understood that Great Britain is ready to deny her American ports to the United States if the proposal is made.

White many diplomats who have called for an international convention of neutrals to prohibit the use of warships in neutral ports, it is agreed that such a convention would assist the South American countries in preserving their neutrality and restoring their trade to a normal basis.

The entire movement is as yet in a formative state, and depends very largely for its progress on the attitude of the United States toward it. Those in a position to know the present opinion expressed by both British and American governments are anxious to make a statement which would indicate the influence of the belligerents in the eventual settlement of the European war.

South American countries are anxious to take up the rôle of neutrals.

CALLS GERMAN REVERSE WORST DEFEAT OF WAR.

Army Invading Russia is Said to Have Been Beaten with Enormous Loss.

Lord Kitchener in Reviewing the Campaign Declares the March on Calais has been Stopped; the Kaiser's Men are Making Progress in no Direction, and that the British and Turks are in Touch Near Suez Canal.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Nov. 26.—The Russians have defeated the Germans with the heaviest losses yet suffered; the Germans have made no advance since I last addressed this house," and "the British are in touch with Turkish forces thirty miles east of the Suez Canal," were the salient points of a speech made by Field Marshal Earl Kitchener in the House of Lords this afternoon when the British Secretary of State for War summarized the military operations.

Lord Kitchener paid a tribute to the gallantry of the Belgian army and to the King of the Belgians, who, he declared had no intention of quitting Belgian territory. He said the losses of the allies were great, but at the same time were slight compared with those of the enemy and that the allied troops were in excellent spirits and confidence of success.

The Russians, he announced, have defeated the Germans with heavier losses than the latter ever suffered before.

MORE MEN NEEDED.

Regarding recruiting, Earl Kitchener said he still had room for men and he was confident that the men would answer the country's call and see that the war was brought to a successful conclusion. He said that about 20,000 recruits were enlisting weekly.

"The time will come when we shall need many more men than we can then make it thoroughly well known," the field marshal said, and added that in the meantime all the gaps in the British forces in the continent had been filled.

Referring to the German advance on Dunkirk and Calais after the capture of Antwerp, Lord Kitchener mentioned that in spite of the overwhelming number of the German forces the British troops vigorously attacked and a British cavalry division, after over seven miles of trenches threw back the fierce attacks of a whole German army corps for more than two days. The arrival of the Indians on the scene had proved to be a great advantage and the fresh reinforcements pushed forward together, the march on Calais was stopped.

PRAISES BELGIANS.

Lord Kitchener spoke of the splendid fighting qualities of the French troops and the "spirit of the gallant Belgian army," which, he said, had been strengthened and encouraged by the co-operation of the British fleet, which had effectively shelled the German artillery positions."

In John French's successful resistance to the German advance, Lord Kitchener told the lords was maintained, notwithstanding that the German supports had been pushed up in large numbers.

GERMANS' SUPREME EFFORT.

"In the early days of November," he continued, "we learned that eleven army corps were attacking the British position. At this critical period the eighth division was dispatched from England to join the forces in the field and the valuable co-operation of our allies, which off set the important strength of the British army, strengthened the British position."

"On November 11, a supreme effort was made by the Germans. The Prussian

BELGIANS ARE DESPERATE; A NEW APPEAL FOR FOOD.

Thanksgiving Day Sees Seven Million People in Starving Condition and Only Half Enough Supplies Being Forwarded from This Country to Save Them from Death—Shipload Starts Soon from California.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—This Thanksgiving Day found 7,000,000 starving persons in war-swept Belgium, crying out for bread, and only half enough food on hand to appease their hunger. Three thousand tons of food are required each day to feed the sufferers, yet to date the United States, upon which the Belgians must depend in the main for sustenance, has furnished less than half that amount. Ten ounces a day will save a human being from death by hunger.

The foregoing epitomizes a statement issued today by the American Commission for the Relief of Belgium, carrying a plea for the small quantity of food supplies for each inhabitant of the stricken land.

A cable from H. C. Hoover, chairman of the London commission, declared the situation desperate, and urged assistance immediately. He said the commission was chartering several ships for dispatch to the Atlantic seaboard, trusting that Americans would fill them with supplies.

Court-martial.

JAIL GERMAN OFFICERS ON PILLAGING CHARGES.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

PARIS, Nov. 26.—The permanent court-martial today sentenced Surgeon-Majors Collins and Wohlfart, who were in charge of the principal field hospital to the second German Army Corps, to a year's imprisonment for alleged pillaging. The condemned officers and the hospital were given sentences varying from one month to three months, and twenty subordinates sentences ranging from one month to three years on the same charge. Eleven other persons connected with the hospital were acquitted.

TROOP SHIPS ENDANGERED BY GERMAN SUBMARINES.

BY AN ASSOCIATE EDITOR OF "THE ARMY AND NAVY JOURNAL."

[BY DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

NEW YORK BUREAU OF THE TIMES, Nov. 26.—The operations along the battle front on the Franco-Belgian line continue to be minor assaults involving only a regiment or two. The Germans have made further progress near Vally, while the French have balanced the account with similar progress west of Boulogne.

The sinking of the British steamer Melachite, three miles from Havre, will cause the British much anxiety in connection with their transport service to France. The troop ships are peculiarly vulnerable to naval attack. If a submarine should appear in a fleet of transports it might inflict an immense disaster.

The British supply service will then be seriously hampered until some protection against this danger is devised.

It is reported that the Germans have been working throughout their campaign in Belgium. By gaining a port close to the English Channel, they will shorten the cruising distance for their transports, and thus increase their chances in their raids against the enemy's fleet.

THE RUSSIAN SUCCESS.

Further reports from Russia show more clearly the extent of the Russian success in Poland. Apparently the Russians put up a much stronger resistance than expected, and were forced to make a rapid retreat from Warsaw they massed their forces near Plock. The German attack on the center was repulsed and the Russians were then turned north between Lods and the Warthe.

RIOTS AND MASSACRES FEARED IN JERUSALEM.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND DIRECT WIRE—EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]

ROME, Nov. 26.—Reports to hand from Jerusalem state that all the British, French and Russians in the town have been imprisoned and are being harshly treated. Opportunity has been taken by the Turkish soldiers to loot their houses.

The Italian Consul in Jerusalem has asked the Italian Foreign Office to send warships to Jaffa, as it is feared that anti-Christian riots and massacres may follow.

The Turkish authorities showed reluctance to represent the numerous of Greeks Christians in the town. It was alleged that in the beginning of the deacons there were pieces of silk, carpets and fine linens which the deacons claimed had been given to them by Carmelite sisters in appreciation of their kindness to the French wounded.

DIRECTOR OF ENGLISH PRESS
BUREAU MAKES SOME TIME-LY STATEMENTS.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]
LONDON, Nov. 26.—During a discussion in the House of Commons tonight relative to the censorship, Sir Stanley Buckmaster, director of the official press bureau of the War Office, said the censorship should have no concern with politics and should not in any circumstances be used for coloring opinion in favor of the government. If that were done, he said, the government would abuse the confidence of the nation and be guilty of a very serious offense.

Sir Stanley declared he had no sympathy with the view that bad news should be prohibited. It was possible, however, that there might be circumstances in which the publication of events might not be desirable and might even prove disastrous.

The government accepted amendments to the defense of the realm bill dealing with the powers of the government with regard to action that could be taken in matters relating to the publication of news.

EXCESSES BEYOND DESCRIPTION
REPORTED IN GALICIA.

Committee to Investigate Conditions Says Wholesale Murders and Executions Have Occurred, Villages Burned and the Country Devastated.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]
LEMBERG (Galicia) Nov. 26 (via Petrograd and London).—A committee appointed to investigate conditions in Galicia reports that there have been wholesale murders, executions and excesses of every description.

Thousands of starving and homeless families gave evidence of these depredations. The Russian population, the committee says, suffered most severely, less from natural consequences of war than from the cruelty of Austrian officials, who always suspected the loyalty of the Galician populace and have acted with marked severity since the beginning of the war.

The committee reports it established the fact that in seven counties 258 men have been shot or hanged, including two priests. Throughout Galicia it is estimated 10,000 peasants have been made and 1000 executions have taken place. In five counties the committee states, its members counted 4050 burned homesteads. In the county in which Przemysl is located there are 3626 families with 2399 children under five years of age, who are homeless.

Robbery and the sacrifice of churches are reported and it is said that whole families, including babies, children and old men, in one instance a deaf mute, have been thrown into prison.

Near Przemysl the committee reports every village has been burned. In the neighborhood of Jaslo, 160 persons in deserted homes were found to have been hanged.

Most of these outrages are said by the committee to have been committed by Hungarians. It is stated that Croats who were pursuing a detachment of Hungarians found the body of one Russian girl who had been crucified. It is also alleged that in one field hospital five persons, horribly maimed, were received. The committee reports that all these facts have been authenticated.

The report said that the Russian troops had been aroused to a high pitch of fury against the French.

The committee made their investigations under the direction of its president, Count Boenitsky, Governor-General of Galicia.

[BY WIRELESS AND A. P.]
BERLIN (via London) Nov. 26.—It is officially reported from Vienna that the amount of the war loan subscribed up to yesterday was 1,500,000,000 marks ($375,000,000) in Austria and over $60,000,000 marks ($200,000,000) in Hungary, says a semi-official statement given out today.

"The Minister of Finance has agreed to extend the period in which subscriptions may be made, but the results already achieved demonstrate the resources of the dual monarchy.

"The Austrian report that ground has been gained in the district about Wolbrom (Southern Poland) is denied, and it is asserted that the German report from Czestochowa and the region north of Cracow shows that they are working together in the south wind to very good purpose. Wolbrom is in a mountainous district, but success has been gained despite the great difficulties.

"In the eastern theater of war the weather generally is clear, but frosty, the temperature averaging ten degrees Celcius below zero. At Cracow fog alternates with snow.

"In Flanders the rain continues and the temperature is near the freezing point. A low temperature prevails in the Lorraine plateau. In the Vosges the crests of the mountains are covered with about six inches of snow."

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]
LONDON, Nov. 26.—The British government's correspondent at the Russian army headquarters, in a dispatch, dated November 25, dealing with the general Russian advance, says that after the Austrians had held the River San for nearly a month against Russians, word came to go forward. The river was crossed and the enemy was driven from his trenches and the neighboring villages.

"The advance was triumphant at all times," says Prof. Pares.

"The Austrians were driven southward and westward. Some were pressed against the Carpathians at a point where there are only two passes. The British, according to Prof. Pares, the commanding general and rear-admirals would be compelled to cross the line of the navy if they followed this up by the town in an irresistible charge.

"The enemy did not hold in retreat until they were driven out of the town. The Russians advanced from their trenches and the neighboring villages.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—The correspondent of the Daily Mail at Dunkirk, France, telegraphs that Dixmude has been retaken by the allies. He says:

"The French marines attacked the town strongly on Tuesday night and drove the Germans out of three lines of advanced trenches. On Wednesday they followed this up by entering the town in an irresistible charge.

"The enemy did not halt in their retreat until they were seven miles out of the town. The marines were 200 men."

Alleged English Aviators in Raid on Zeppelin Sheds Flew on Neutral Territory.

(By ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.)

LONDON, Nov. 26.—Winston Spencer Churchill, first Lord of the Admiralty, replied in the House of Commons today in response to a question from Frederick H. Booth to the question that the French and British admirals who recently made a raid upon the Zeppelin airship factory Friederichshafen had crossed territory in their flight.

"Aviators who are flying at great altitudes," he said, "find it almost impossible to determine the country which they are taking. However, British airmen who made the raid upon the Zeppelin factory received explicit instructions to avoid neutral territory. They carried a map indicating the course which they were to follow."

Mr. Churchill added that no agreement had been reached at the conference regarding the passing of belligerent air craft over neutral territory.

WILSON STRICT WITH PASSPORTS.

NATURALIZED AMERICANS TOLD PRIVILEGE MUST NOT BE ABUSED.

(By A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—Applications by naturalized Americans for passports to visit their native lands are frequently made to the State Department, which is enforcing strict application of the new passport regulations recently promulgated by President Wilson. In each case officials are requested to clearly show that the purpose of the applicant is to make a short business visit and that he has no intention to seek political asylum from local obligations while abroad because of his American citizenship.

Many complex situations have arisen since the outbreak of the European war through the efforts of naturalized Americans engaged in business abroad to obtain immunity from the restrictions enforced against their countrymen, who frequently are competitors in business. This has been particularly true in oriental countries.

Evidence in Contest Now in Progress Indicates that Woman Who Will Share Half Million Annual Income is Legitimate Daughter of Late St. Louis Banker.

(By A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Two witnesses testified yesterday before Referee John J. Tierney of St. Louis that they believed Mrs. Elzy G. Burkhardt of St. Louis is a daughter of the late James Campbell, a banker and owner of public utilities, who died suddenly in Greenwich, Conn., June 29 last.

In his will Campbell made provision for his widow, Mrs. Florence Campbell, and Mrs. Burkhardt, to whom he left $10,000.

Campbell was a silversmith and had about 10 per cent. are personal duty, which should be paid in neutral territory.

"Aviators who are flying at great altitudes," he said, "find it almost impossible to determine the country which they are taking. However, British airmen who made the raid upon the Zeppelin factory received explicit instructions to avoid neutral territory. They carried a map indicating the course which they were to follow."

Mr. Churchill added that no agreement had been reached at the conference regarding the passing of belligerent air craft over neutral territory.

Practically all officers except those in Mexican waters excepted departments, and nearly half of the men and nearly half of the dependents were listed.

This state of affairs obtains now than 75 per cent. of the men at sea—a greater percentage than ever before known in peace.

Miss Anne Mahoney, who was a sponsor at the baptism of Mrs. Burkhardt in 1903, testified today that she attended the child's christening.

Mrs. Florence Campbell and the infant at the telegraphic request of Mr. Campbell. She said she first saw the child at a New York hotel when it was about two hours old. Campbell, a local chemist followed, she testified.

"Was Mr. Campbell there?" was asked.

"No," Mrs. Mahoney replied.

Miss Mahoney further stated that she herself had attended a wedding supper given the Campbells at a New York hotel.

Baptismal records from the cathedral showed that a James Campbell, a son of James and Florence Campbell, was baptized in 1893, were presented by Monsignor Lavelle, vicar-general of the diocese of New York. He testified that the name of the father was given on the record of legitimate birth. Otherwise the space where the father's name should appear would be filled in with "Pater ignotus," meaning "father unknown."

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Richard W. Croker, former leader of Tammany Hall, was married today to Miss Julia Benton Edmondson, a member of the Cherokee Indian tribe, who is fifty years his junior. He is 72 years old and she is 23. Tonight the bride and bridegroom are on their way to the Croker estate near Palm Beach, Fla., for their honeymoon.

The wedding took place at the home of Nathan Straus, an old friend of Croker's, only about twenty-five guests witnessing the ceremony.

The bride was given away by her uncle, W. W. Hastings, who for fifteen years has been attorney for the Cherokee and who recently was elected to Congress from Oklahoma.

The bridesmaids were Miss Frances Fite, a senior at Vassar, who comes from Muskogee, Okla.; Miss Ethel Brown of Dayton, O., and Miss Townsend of Memphis, Tenn.

Monsignor Henry A. Brann, rector of the St. Agnes Church, performed the ceremony. The bridegroom's gift to the bride was a pearl collar. Croker is intended by Thomas F. Smith, who has been secretary of Tammany Hall for years.

RESINOL CURED AWFUL ITCHING IN ONE NIGHT

New York.—The skin on my hand got red and rough. It itched and I began to scratch it. It itched so that sometimes I could not sleep all night. I was suffering very much. I used to scratch it, but they did not seem to help me. This went on for six or seven months. Then I tried Resinol. I used them one night. In the morning, to my surprise, my hand was all well and the trouble has never returned. This is the absolute truth."—(Signed) Miss Celia Kleinman, 61 Columbia street, April 26.

The Nerves and Their Needs

We do not give much thought to our nervous system when it is working all right but when it goes wrong nature has a way of calling it forcibly to our attention—something that we cannot overlook.

Try to reach a painful nerve with medicine of any sort and you are confronted with a fact that every doctor knows, that the only way to reach the nerves is through the blood.

You see, now why Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, the great tonic for the blood, are also a great nerve builder. When a nerve becomes inflamed and painful it is so unless caused by an accident, because the blood was not giving it the elements it needed to continue its activity.

Minister to United States Declares Allied Powers Can Point Out Any Cases of Violation the Officers Will Receive the Most Severe Punishment.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Columbia has maintained the strictest neutrality ever since the outbreak of the European war and has made every effort to compel neutrality of the strictest sort on the part of all foreigners in that country, Don Julio Betancourt, Colombian Minister to the United States, declared today. He made this declaration in an official statement given out at his hotel here, which read:

"Mr. Betancourt, the Colombian Minister, said today that the government of Colombia has made every effort to compel all foreigners in Colombia to maintain the strictest neutrality ever since the European war broke out. He said that if either English or the French powers have proofs of violations of Colombia's neutrality by any persons or corporations in Colombia and would present them at Bogota, he would guarantee the most stringent punishment would be meted out to the offenders."

"Minister Betancourt pointed out that the wireless station complained of, was now under government censorship, and that the American wireless stations in the United States, but despite the most active efforts of the Colombian government to maintain its neutrality at all costs, one of the best known American wireless stations, located in the British Columbia, had been taken over by the Canadian government.

"The immense body of water continues comparatively warm and it will be at least three weeks of very cold weather before there is any permanent grip upon the situation.

The grass in the parks and suburbs continues green and unwilted, which at this season of the year, appears unusual.

"The Ohio Valley and the Central Mississippi Valley, as represented by St. Louis, had a maximum temperature of 66 deg., or 2 deg. warmer than New Orleans or San Antonio, Eastern States, also reported an average of 8 deg. over yesterday, and the entire Northwest is considerably warmer. Western Canada, which a few days ago reported 24 deg. below zero, yesterday showed 40 deg. above, while Eastern Canada reports 55 deg. above.

Rain in considerable volume fell in the Gulf Coast States, but the rest of the country, excepting Arkansas and Washington, was dry yesterday.

As far as surface indications go, there is no cold weather in any direction and none of the elements threatening a cold wave. Medicine Hat, the northernmost bridge had 40 deg. above, with a four-mile south wind, which does not look like any trouble from that direction just at present. Other temperatures were:

threatened by the rupture of trade connections with Europe, the Latin countries are looking to the United States as a outlet for their domestic enterprises and they believe the development of their industries by foreign interests will not come until pan-American trade has been given absolute protection.

The idea that neutral zones may be established within which ships of all nations may move unmolested is an extension of the original principle of neutrality, but it is based on miles as the territorial limit of a nation. This distance was agreed upon because it was the range of guns in use when the principle was established. Since the range of guns has extended to many hundreds of miles and the wireless has introduced a new means of controversy over breaches of neutrality. The countries which favor the establishment of a neutral zone agree that extension of territorial waters to 100 or even 200 miles from the coast is just as much an inherent right of a sovereign nation as was the fixing of the three-mile limit.

The proposal to deny coal to warships, it is thought by some of the South American diplomats, would hardly be adequate, as much more could be done in preventing merchant ships from coaling men-of-war at sea.

The idea, also, of giving a warship only enough coal to reach a port of its own country, would not affect the beligerents to coal their vessels.

ACTION IN COLOMBIA.

Already Colombia, which was a signatory to the Hague convention, has ordered that instead of giving a vessel under coal to reach a port, the coal will be sold to enable the belligerents to make only the part of an adjacent country. This, however, has resulted from the desire of Colombia to restrict the exportation of coal, of which she has only limited production.

The calling of a conference through the governing board of the Pan-American union has been widely discussed as an instrument for joint action by the nations of the Americas, and, if decided upon, probably will be held in Washington.

While high government officials in the United States do not discuss tonight any of the various suggestions, they have been offered, saying they were all under consideration, there were intimations in some quarters that out of the numerous proposals some plan for the re-union of America would be evolved by the American government in co-operation with South American countries.

CAREFULLY WATCH SUSPECTED YACHT.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—Searchlights from the revenue cutter Mohawk and the torpedo boat destroyer Winchendon were kept constantly trained tonight on the yacht Winchendon, anchored off Clifton, N. J., about a mile from the government vessels, which are acting as guards to see that neutrality is not violated by shipping.

The Winchendon, which reported to the government to see that the neutrality was not violated by shipping, was driven back to sea.

The reason for the especially close watch kept upon the Winchendon tonight was not known.

ROBERT LORAIN AMONG WOUNDED.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

LONDON, Nov. 26.—Robert Loraine, the widely-known English actor and aviator, is a second lieutenant in the Royal Flying Corps, and among the wounded reported from army headquarters under date of November 22. Mr. Loraine, who was one of the earliest and most enthusiastic of the aviators, narrowly escaped death in a flight across the Irish Sea three years ago.

Lieut. Hon. Fitzroy of the First Guards is also among the wounded. He is a member of Parliament.

AFFIRM GERMAN DEFEAT IN RUSSIA.

[BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A. P.]

PARIS, Nov. 26.—All the newspapers of Petrograd, says a dispatch from that city to the Havas agency, affirm that the Germans suffered a terrible catastrophe in attempting an offensive movement with five army corps against the Russians between the Tula and Orel rivers. The German turning movement, against the left wing of the Russians in the region of Orel, had been beaten off, and the Germans had suffered a heavy defeat.

From Galicia comes word that the Germans are being driven back from the Carpathian mountains.

"In detail, the operations in the north of the Vistula and Oder mean that the Germans are being driven back across the river. While the British army is still held in the north of the Vistula, the Germans are being driven back across the Oder."

"The German advance is slow, though slow.

"The British army is advancing rapidly. After retreating in the north, the British army is advancing rapidly.

"Advances from the British army are successful, but the Germans are holding operations."

ARMY'S ADVANCE PLEASES BERLIN.Road to Warsaw is Open North of the Vistula.Portugal's Probable Action is of no Real Importance.French Losses Reported to be Over Half a Million.(BY WIRELESS AND A. P.)
BERLIN, Nov. 26.—Information given out to the press today by the official press bureau includes the following:

"A majority of the newspapers do not refer to the possibility that Portugal will join the allies. The few papers which do mention it declare that it would not affect the situation the slightest."

"The Persian Legation at Constantinople has received information that Tatars that Kurdish troops surprised a Russian garrison and killed 200 them."

"A great mass meeting was held here to demand the immediate cessation of Macedonia by the Bulgarian army. The interests of Bulgaria have her to maintain a friendly attitude toward Roumania and Turkey, to make the destruction of Serbia an imperative necessity."

"M. Wolkow, president of the Committee for the Improvement of Economic Conditions in Russia, said that bankruptcy is imminent in the country. The Great War is largely responsible for the large number of insolvencies are creating a panic."

"Reports of a Pan-Islamic British movement are confirmed by the Foreign Service of Petrograd which states that the movement is beginning in Afghanistan. Porte states that all Arabs who fight for military service have done their recruiting for a holy war."

"The Persians are continuing their advance in Mesopotamia. The German army in Belgium, stating that any attack to Belgium is severely punished."

"The commanding general of the German army in Belgium, the Berliner Zeitung reports, intentionally avoided King Albert's castle on account of historical associations and its association with the Duke of Wellington. The Germans that Field Marshal French and his staff were sent there. After their retreat the British forces bombarded the castle and destroyed it. The staff of the division settled down there."

ADVANCE SATISFACTORY.

"News from the east and west says semi-official announcements made here today. "It is considered favorable, as tending to show that German advance is proceeding rapidly. It is reported that the German army in Mesopotamia, which is now being driven back through Armenia, is advancing rapidly. The Germans are being driven back through Armenia."

"While no detailed account concerning the operations in the north around Silica and Woldenberg have been received, it is reported that the Austrians have taken 25,000 prisoners, mostly machine guns in the last four days. This seems to show that their advance is continuous."

"Advices from Constantinople say that the Turkish forces have won other successes, but that had been in hindering operations in the cause."

PROOF OF CONVENTION.

"The German government has released photographic reproductions of a document found in Brussels, which proves the existence of an American military convention. The report of the Chief of the General Staff, Gen. Diaz, dated Nov. 1906 to the Belgian Minister of War concerning negotiations with the British and the British minister concerning their landing place, their equipment and the collaboration of the armies are all agreed upon."

"There have been found also one document, probably a copy of the original, which contains the names of the British and American military commanders at Brussels to the chief of the General Staff, Gen. Diaz, dated Nov. 1906 to the Belgian Minister of War concerning negotiations with the British and the British minister concerning their landing place, their equipment and the collaboration of the armies are all agreed upon."

"A REBATER," SAYS PRESTON.FEDERAL ATTORNEY TO TRY
INDICT SOUTHERN PACIFIC.

Alleged Rate Discrimination in Grain Shipments will be Presented to the Grand Jury—Western Pacific Lease Case is Also to be Investigated.

(BY ATLANTIC CABLE AND A.P.)
SAN FRANCISCO, NOV. 26.—U. S. State Attorney John W. Preston announced today that he would present a matter of alleged rate discrimination of the Southern Pacific Company to the Federal grand jury next week. The issue was raised by Mr. W. F. Clegg and it so happens that C. Templeton Crocker, grandson of one of the founders of the Southern Pacific, is a member of the industrial bar, and it is to pass on charges against the corporation.

Preston had planned to proceed by means of an information issued by one of the Federal judges, but the request of the Interstate Commerce Commission will place all of the alleged facts before the grand jury. Preston said:

"This matter has been considered by two grand juries, and they did nothing, though it might have been a good idea to proceed by information, but H. P. Duncan, attorney for the Interstate Commerce Commission, has written that he will come out to appear before the grand jury and I am perfectly willing to let it go that way. The statute of limitations will have run next month on the offense, and I intend to act while there is yet time."

The United States attorney would not make public the nature of the charges, but it was reported that they grew out of alleged refunds to grain shippers. It was also reported that the Pacific maintains that the necessities of business compelled the returning of some of the money obtained in rates from grain men.

Preston admitted that the old charge against the Western Pacific Railroad Company of contributing toward an unexpired lease of the Simons Manufacturing Company would be presented to the grand jury for the third time.

SHORT CUT TO JUSTICE.SAN FRANCISCO JURIST HAS A
CURE FOR LAWS DELAY.MAN WHO NEGLECTS TO PAY WIFE
MONTHLY MAINTENANCE AS ORDERED, TO BE PROSECUTED AS A FELON
FOR FAILURE TO PROVIDE FOR A MINOR CHILD.

[By A. P. NIGHT WIRE]

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 26.—Superior Judge A. G. Sturtevant took a legal short cut here yesterday following criticisms of delays in California court procedure, which formed the basis of a recent address delivered by Chief Justice Matt L. Sullivan before the California Bar Association.

Some months ago the wife of Patrick Reilly, a grocer, sued her husband for $20 a month separate maintenance and a division of their property. Judge Sturtevant granted her petition. Reilly then took an appeal to the Supreme Court and was granted a stay of judgment until that body could hear the appeal. This, said Judge Sturtevant, might take three years.

The tables were then turned upon Reilly by Judge Sturtevant, who awarded Mrs. Reilly $150 a month temporary maintenance pending the outcome of the appeal taken by her husband. None of these payments have been made.

Today Judge Sturtevant issued a warrant for Reilly's arrest for failure to provide for his minor child following his statement.

"Instead of citing this man to show cause why he should not make these payments, and listening to the usual excuses, I will do it as a committing magistrate and issue a warrant for his arrest on a charge of failure to provide for a minor child and let him be tried on that charge."

Previously, women have had recourse for situations of this sort only through the District Attorney and the Police Court, and many times the husbands have been released from custody on their simple promises to make the payments ordered by the court.

VON DER GOLTZ LUCKY.

Charge of Being German Spy is Dropped and He Gets but Short Jail Sentence.

(By ATLANTIC CABLE AND A.P.)
LONDON, Nov. 26.—The case of Horst von der Goltz, alias Bridgeman Taylor, who for a time promised to parallel the case of Carl Hans Lody, who was executed as a German spy, simmered down in the Bow-street Police Court today, when the prosecution elected to try the prisoner on the simple charge of failing to register as an alien enemy. Accordingly, there will be no court-martial. Von der Goltz swore that he was born in San Francisco, that he went to Germany when he was 12 years old, and left that country when he was 17. He was a sergeant in Mexican army in order to do this he had to become a Mexican citizen, and he still claims Mexican nationality. The prisoner admitted his parents were Germans. If you are a German," said the prosecutor, "what justification have you for passing as an American citizen named Bridgeman Taylor?"

In reply the prisoner explained that he had a passport facilitated travel in Europe.

Von der Goltz admitted under cross-examination that he had told an attaché of the British Foreign Office that he could reveal the time of the explosion of Zeppelin raids.

"Then you came here to sell German secrets to us," remarked the prosecutor.

The prisoner admitted this was so.

Still more than this he is not a German subject and under no obligation to register, Von der Goltz heard the court impose a sentence of six months at hard labor, recommending that at the conclusion of this term he be deported.

This matter has been considered by two grand juries, and they did nothing, though it might have been a good idea to proceed by information, but H. P. Duncan, attorney for the Interstate Commerce Commission, has written that he will come out to appear before the grand jury and I am perfectly willing to let it go that way. The statute of limitations will have run next month on the offense, and I intend to act while there is yet time.

If not verbally expressed for the good things spread before them, at least the soul voiced that at many tables laden with Thanksgiving cheer in hospitals, public and private institutions. The worn-out men and women gazed at the vision with thoughts turned backward to other days past at home; boys and girls here cast their eyes and then crowded their stomachs with turkey and chicken and pumpkin pie. All in all Thanksgiving for the poor and invalid yesterday stands out as being provided as luxuriously and for perhaps more than former years. A conservative estimate of deserving poor cheered in 2500.

At the Young Women's Christian Association the Adelphian Club met around the table, dining at a dinner that smacked as nearly as possible of those the young women ate at home before the exigencies of fate drove them forth to seek a living in the Sun-land of California. To the girls away from home it was the touch of home they have made good in their chosen profession, and though not a few suffered a moment from seasickness the heavy-loaded and daintily-laden turkeys brought cheer to their hearts. Miss Rosalie Harder, president of the club, presided at the dinner. Seventy-five were present. After dinner the Victoria Club entertained the girls in their room, the younger girls being present. This party was largely attended.

EAGER-EYED CHILDREN.

The little suffering tots at the Children's Hospital awaited Thanksgiving with the zest of childhood. Most of them expressed the kind of desire that the children of rich and kindly friends of the hospital contributed luxuries with a view of pleasing the invalids. Laden trays were brought to the cots, discovered far off by eager eyes. Mrs. Allen, the housekeeper had charge. The members of the board dipped into their pocketbooks to supply good things. Turkey, ice cream and pie came with the best wishes of leading firms and citizens.

Al Levy gave a grand dinner at his cafe to eighty children of the Jewish Orphan's Home. His grandson, Bob Levy, Jr., was host. Dr. and Mrs. Sigmond Frey presided. Nothing was lacking in the dinner. The food was the worthy, and the wonder grew that such stomachs could hold so much. After dining to satiety, the children scampered with delight when was announced that there were to be shown moving pictures. These were donated by Fred Balschoff and were selected with a view to pleasing little ones.

urst pork, ham, beans, rice and pumpkin pie were the chief dishes served to the 250 inmates of the Los Angeles Orphan Asylum. The boys and girls, many of whom never knew the blessings of home, marked yesterday as another day of fun. All the children cried "Enough." They ranged in years from 2 to 16. An entertainment was the flip to the dinner.

The Union Rescue Mission dined 300 men and boys. The quarters were arranged for the throng which pressed around the doors, and yet everyone dined heartily, mulligan stew being the piece de resistance. Forty women workers also ate dinner at the Union. The Mission. Later music was furnished for the entertainment of all present.

At the County Hospital 1200 patients gave thanks for the abundant dinner served to them. A girl who was seated at their table, but the big words in no wise lacked the spirit of Thanksgiving, although the inmates were sufferers.

Bethesda Institute served dinner to 400 men and women. Many lunches of meat and potatoes were distributed to the worthy poor.

BEHIND THE BARS.

For the nonce steel cells and grim walls were forgotten when the 270 inmates of the County Jail responded to the dinner bell. Jailer George Gallagher, as inmate de jour, served a dinner as near mothering as "mother's" as possible. Chicken, pork and all the fixin's were there, and as fork and knife and spoon clattered cast, creed and condition were forgotten.

R. E. Lomax, the jeweler, charged with murder, voiced the feeling of his mates when he said:

"I would rather have a glass of water and a slice of bread with my wife and children than dine here. But it was a good dinner, well served, and the sauce was the sympathy of Mr. Gallagher and his men. Our thoughts went back to the east to help the dear ones. There was nothing to remind us of prison but the bars."

In the borders' tank the men read the Thanksgiving service and chatted of by-gone days. Being well-fed they were able to talk of their past, for some one had thought of their well-being although social outcast.

DAND OF UNKNOWN WEALTH.

Alaskan Says His Country is Just Awakening and Whole Coast Will Benefit Thereby.

The whole Pacific Coast soon will feel the stimulus of great commercial and industrial activities in Alaska, in the opinion of S. W. Young, mine operator of Juneau. He believes that the Coast far south as San Diego will be benefited by the business awakening of Alaska.

"It is difficult to conceive of the mighty industrial forces which are stirring in Alaska at the time," Mr. Young said yesterday at the Clark. "The opening of the coal beds, the construction of the government railroad, the ambitions and energy of the people, the coming of new capital and other forces all combine to the advantage of the country. Nobody knows the mineral, agricultural and commercial possibilities of the country. It will require many years to learn of the riches of land."

"California and the other States on the Coast are beginning to reap benefits from Alaska's prosperity. When people move down to Alaska they usually spend the most of it in the milder climates to the south along the Coast. Many wealthy Alaskans own winter homes in Southern California. Much of the supplies used in Alaska come from the Pacific Coast States."

IDEAL DAY OF THANKSGIVING.

Delightful Surroundings and Worshipful Throngs.

Woes of Other Nations Make Peace Doubly Sweet.

Mission Feeds Body and Soul
Throughout the Day.

In the throngs which filled the church yesterday morning at the Thanksgiving services were thousands of persons who for the first time realized that it doesn't take rain and snow and frost to make a Thanksgiving Day. The day was a fulfillment of the dreamy ideal of a day in June—quite the opposite of the ideal of the easterner who has been accustomed to flush rabbits in the crisp air when the first snow had fallen during the preceding night. The mellow sunshine, the blossoms, the flowers, the laden orange trees, the singing birds were the accompaniments to which the easterner timed their thanksgiving churchward.

But the people didn't all go to church. They had there what would have been no room in the crush. The boulevards to the beach were lined with elongated trains of automobiles throughout the day, while the interurban cars ran in the same direction and to the mountains were packed to the limit.

And everybody was there for the privilege of living in glorious Southern California as well as for partaking. As one minister put it, "This is a day to be thankful for a lot of things, but the first is that we have no room in the crush."

I've carried 'em for four years," he said. "I started to collect 'em four years ago. I'm only a laborer and couldn't invest my money in diamonds, you know. I figured that there must be money I can sell that at a profit anytime. This year put a crimp in my finances so I thought I'd unload one. There's nothing wrong in that is there?"

Nevertheless Pat found a cell waiting him—also that Thanksgiving Day.

The police made many people happy yesterday. Mrs. Hibbs of No. 205 North Street was told that her 12-year-old boy, Gerald Dent, was restored to her. Gerald was away on the 12th inst. because his teacher made him stay after school. He was taught arithmetic. And yesterday, the time for Thanksgiving services, the piano of the Baptist Church on Maple avenue, near Eighth street, was restored yesterday. The day before Murned H. Davis, a young Negro, was found in the basement of a truck up to the church door, loaded the $700 instrument on it and later sold it to a furniture dealer at No. 207 West Eighth street for $46. When the negro was arrested he confessed. In his pockets were found $17.18.

"Of course ah bought a bird with some ob it," he told the "trustie" who served him with beef yesterday. "Why wouldn't ah buy turkey if ah had money?"

TURNS DOWN TIP.

Hotel Porter, Beware He Had to, Refused Coin of Insistent New York Guest.

The persistent efforts of a wealthy guest to over-ride the no-tipping rule at the Stowell yesterday resulted only in defeat. Since the opening of the hotel the management has adhered strictly to the no-tip plan.

An arrival—J. Mortimer de Valle from New York offered a 50-cent tip to a porter, but it was refused with the explanation that it was against the rules of the house to take the money. The guest, who evidently has been used to having his own way, was insistent and finally threw the money at the porter as the latter went down the steps.

The money was placed in an envelope with a note of explanation and left in Mr. De Valle's box, but this did not satisfy him. He, irritated, sought Stockdale, president of the hotel corporation.

"I want to give a porter a tip and would like to know why I am not permitted to do so?" The New Yorker inquired. "This is a free country. I don't care if one tell me that I can give my money away."

"It's against the rules, that's all," Mr. Stockdale replied. "The man would lose his job if he took the money. If you refuse to take it, the porter will be compelled to return it to the guest."

The nice of America.

So American Travel Director Calls Los Angeles—Says We Will Get the Tourists Next Year.

"Society people in America will not be able to follow the usual lines of travel during the coming year," Dr. William Fogg, director of the Paris office of Town Topics, declared yesterday at the Alexandria. "The European tourists will not come here for the most radical changes in traveling schedules known in 100 years."

"Members of the leisure class who have been going to England, the continent, Australia and Egypt, suddenly find these routes closed. I have been conducting an investigation to learn where society people are going next year."

"They are going to the Orient. To Mexico, and it appears that here is where they are coming. Mexico is not inviting at this time and South America is not especially attractive. The indications are that California will reap a great benefit from the suspension of foreign tourist travel."

Dr. Fogg was magazine correspondent in Paris for two years. He closed his office there last August on account of war conditions.

"Los Angeles suggests to me the French city of Nice. Dr. Fogg concluded similarly, although I believe that it is milder in Southern California. The scenery around Nice is impressive, but not so beautiful as it is here. There is only one great auto route had out of Nice but Los Angeles has many."

The boarders' tank the men read the Thanksgiving service and chatted of by-gone days. Being well-fed they were able to talk of their past, for some one had thought of their well-being although social outcast.

SHOT FOR SHOT IS BUNCO MAN'S CREED

ALLEGED INFORMER WOUNDED IN BACK OVER CHARITY FRAUD SCHEME.

A figurative shot in the back features a shooting at No. 315 Ord street yesterday afternoon. Frank Manfredy, an Italian "bunco" man, fired a bullet into the back of Joe Anderson, 34, who says he is a sailor.

When Detective Fitzgerald, special probation officer for Manfredy, asked him why he shot Anderson, Manfredy said:

"He was in with me on that double-deal, but 'skinned' out in a pinch and left me to face the音乐—the backroom." So when he saw him, he shot him, and the police could get hold of him and let him get a taste of jail life himself."

Manfredy recently was convicted of grand larceny in a trial before Judge Willis. On account of the prisoner's ill health he was released to Detective Fitzgerald until December 18, when sentence will be imposed.

Manfredy, in the romantic role of matchmaker, made arrangements for a marriage between his sister and an East Third-street Slav. It was agreed that each should celebrate by giving $50 to charity. Each placed a sum in a small envelope which was slipped into the coat of Manfredy. He wanted to put it next to his heart. A second later he withdrew a handkerchief in apparent distress. It was then discovered that the envelope contained spurious paper. The suit was told that he had put in counterfeits and was told to exchange them where he had procured them. At last he found the room and let the neighbors in.

Mrs. Rusterholz died at the Pacific Hospital early in the morning. In setting out a sulphur pan in a chicken coop to fumigate it, her skirt caught fire. She rushed into the yard, her hands fanning the flames which seared her finally.

The police are investigating.

Yesterday he said Anderson was "in the deal," but betrayed him when the police picked him (Manfredy) up for the swindle.

Anderson is not seriously wounded.

STORY SHE LIES DYING.

From burns received at the same time in two different parts of the city two women died yesterday. One was Mrs. Annie Nickles of No. 313 Grand avenue, 55 years old and blind. The other was Mrs. Rusterholz, 45, of No. 159 West Fifty-ninth street. Both were injured shortly after noon on Wednesday.

Shortly before she died, Mrs. Nickles, who was blind, told her entire body, told a remarkable story to attaches of the County Hospital.

"My father and mother brought me to this country when I was a baby," she said. "We were very poor, and if I had had doctors then my sight might have been saved. When I was quite a girl I was taken to San Francisco, and there three doctors treated me, and I can well remember the day when the light came and I could see again. Uncle Ben" Pearson, J. M. Berkely, "Charlie" Alexander and Fred Benton carried the official successively through the day, with the assistance of a large number of faithful workers.

Speeds to His Death.

Automobilist Drives Headlong into Big Auto Truck and is Instantly Killed on South Main Street.

Speeding at a rate reported to the police as forty miles an hour, R. H. Schenckel, a bartender at the Admiralty Buffet, San Pedro, lost control of his automobile in the middle and was instantly killed at Manchester avenue and Main street yesterday afternoon. His body was taken to the Pierce parlor.

The truck is owned by the Burr Company, and was driven by E. W. Murphy of No. 431 East Thirty-eighth street. It was headed east on Manchester. Driving north on Main, Mr. Schenckel evidently saw the motor truck too late to check his speed or avoid the collision.

Mr. Schenckel was a bartender at the Admiralty Buffet, and was reported to have been a good worker.

Entered at the Postoffice as mail matter of Class II.

A DISTINCTION.
A State charity commissioner recommends that all who will not work be Ostracized. We would be sorry to see this apply to persons who do work, but who don't like it.

A KEPITICAL.
A one-time boss of Tammany, now 73 years of age and still a man of great wealth, has married a pretty singer who is 23. Isn't it too bad how many will remark that she has not long to wait?

THE MAN IN A HOLE.
If you see the other fellow headed straight for perdition and you can head him off, then is the time to speak, but after he is in a hole, there is no use to ask how he got there. All you can do is to help him out, or let him go down.

NEEDED.
The Chamber of Commerce wants a Russian consular office in Los Angeles. The request is reasonable. With the influx of immigrants this country will experience after the war, all of the larger nations should be officially represented here.

A TIP.
It is figured out that in a short time the government will own the railroads in this country. In that case it will be necessary to pass a civil service examination before getting the job of porter on a Pullman car, but it won't be worth getting.

HERE AND WELCOME.
Christmas bazaars have come. In another week no well-regulated church or society will be without one. We shall all attend in a body, and if none of us have anything left for a Christmas of our own, what is the difference, so long as the rest are happy?

WILSON AND WILSON.
It seems queer that with as much money as is spent for the use of the Agricultural Department, the prevalence of the cattle plague was not known in this country until it was manifested in a half dozen States. If discovered in its inception it might have been easily mastered. Secretary Wilson, the former Cabinet Minister, kept it out.

ACCORDING TO "LIFE."
Our famous New York contemporary, "Life," has just published a permanent peace map of Europe as it should look according to the views of this joke purveyor to the American public. On this new map the names of Germany and Austria are conspicuous by their absence. The chief inference we draw from this is that the editor and proprietors of "Life" don't care a whoop in Hades for any request that is made by President Wilson during the present ticklish state of affairs.

TOLLS ON COASTWISE SHIPS.
The November number of the New York Marine News editorially endorses the editorial in The Times raising the question of the constitutionality of tolls on American vessels passing through the Panama Canal engaged in domestic trade, and suggesting that it should be presented for determination to the Supreme Court of the United States.

The Marine News says: "Anything that will free American vessels using the Panama Canal from tolls should be pressed. Who is the enterprising and patriotic ship owner who will take the legal steps necessary for a determination of this point by the Supreme Court?"

REGISTERING A COMPLAINT.

Having lived among men for some time, having admired some of them and been impatient with others, having boasted and sympathized all along the line, having been inspired by the conduct of many and disgusted with the actions of not a few, we have decided what it is that we most dislike in the average run. It is that so many begin almost from birth to worry about how and when they will die. Some of them seem to make a business of dying. They make life something to be nursed instead of lived. They make it a sort of an apology until they can get away. They sit around holding hands with death. People should really have more to do than sit around speculating on how they will die. Live the most and the best while you can and do not try to foresee or to have a hand in the finish of something you never started.

FRONTING THIS BISHOP.
A new Episcopal bishop has just been appointed to Jerusalem. Hitherto the British navy has accorded new bishops of Jerusalem the honor of a warship for transport, but this year they have excused themselves on the plea of an urgent prior engagement.

One recalls how, when the first bishop of Jerusalem was appointed to that office in 1842, he was staggered to learn that the ship he was to embark on was entitled H. M. S. Inferno. He wrote indignantly that he would travel by no ship with such a disgraceful name. The only other available ship was H. M. S. Devastation, which found the bishop equally unhappy. However, he subsequently accepted transport on that vessel of war under strong protest, and there were fierce meetings held in England for some time afterwards to try to get more conciliatory and less offensive cognomina for the first line of defense. Since then "Invincibles," "Dreadnaughts" and such brave and defensive titles have been substituted.

The church militant has its own ideas of what is seemly and Christian.

"BRUTAL JOURNALISM."
When a man—or one who from his external appearance passes as a man—is accused by a public prosecutor of a crime, the logical presumption is that the evidence showed that a crime had been committed, and that there was probable cause to believe that the accused had committed it.

The accused is not, in this country, as in some Latin countries, incarcerated and kept incommunicado during his imprisonment. He has a right to demand an immediate and public examination before a magistrate. He has a right to call upon his accuser to present all the witnesses against him. He has a right to cross-examine those witnesses. He has a right to the aid of counsel, and if he is without means the magistrate will appoint a lawyer to defend him, and unless the offense is punishable with death, and the proof is evident and the presumption great, he has a right to be admitted to bail.

If the accused is innocent he will avail himself of these rights. He will court immediate and exhaustive investigation. If his arrest has been a mistake of the prosecuting attorney, if it has been made upon false or insufficient evidence, he will be discharged and he will thank the fearless, decent, loyal newspaper for giving to the world all the facts in the case which show his vindication.

But if he is as guilty as a dog, and a cowardly dog at that, he will set up a technical defense—as that the lady was 22 years of age and he therefore did not contribute to the delinquency of a minor female. Or he will plead the statute of limitations. Or he will plead that his high moral character as a Sunday-school superintendent or a contributor to religious institutions should exempt him from prosecution, or he will run away from the community he has imposed upon, or flee from the life he has disgraced.

Or he will call to his aid the services of venal journalists, men

"Whose vice is not to leave undone
But keep unknown."

And these fawners upon wealth and position, these doctors of journalism who encourage rottenness by covering ulcers with concealing plasters, at once rush to the defense of the sodomists, and seducers, and worshipers of Priapus, not by publishing the truth, but by denouncing as "brutal journalists" those who dare to publish the truth.

The Times will not be moved to depart from its duty to give the news by the outcries of such vermin as Toopius and his henchmen. There is no scamp so guilty, so despairing, so bountiful and denounced, so hunted and pursued, so fearful of life, so afraid of death, but that The Times will find space to present his defense and to say that he is innocent if it so appears.

And there is no lecherous wretch so entrenched behind social and church barriers, so wealthy, so influential, so able to subsidize a dirty, corrupt, cowardly proprietor of a newspaper to abuse those who print the sworn truth, no matter who may be hurt by it, that will be able to stifle the voice of The Times, though the hypocritical newspapers howl "brutal journalism" from the rising of the sun to the going down thereof. And The Times will go on prospering as no other newspaper in its field, printing more advertising than any other newspaper on earth and beating all its rivals in the volume and reliability of its news.

LO PLEADS FOR PEACE.
The Pueblo Indians of New Mexico, whose chief bears the uncomplimentary title of "White Man Runs," sent a delegation of thirty braves to the Mayor of New York to tell him that they "looked with horror upon the calamity in which the great nations of Europe are steeped" and to petition him to "send to the warring nations of Europe a message pleading that peace be restored."

White Man Runs was evidently apprehensive that his plea for peace might be sneered at because earlier in life he had earned his title by scalping emigrants and helping himself to the cattle of those whose cabin he and his warriors had burned. So he forestalled criticism by remarking, "We look with shame and horror upon our acts and deeds years ago; but we were savages then. It may be a waste of words and our desire may be drowned before it reaches its destination, but we want to make our thoughts known, and we sincerely hope that you will use your official position to transmit for us this plea of peace."

If the Mayor of New York fails to use his official position to transmit to Kaiser William and King George and Czar Nicholas and President Poincaré and Emperor Franz Josef and a job lot of Balkan monarchs, the prayer for peace of White Man Runs and his braves, he will be guilty of discourtesy to

"Lo the poor Indian whose untutored mind Sees God in trees and bears him in the wind."

AMERICAN GRAND OPERA.
Many advantages are coming to Los Angeles in the near future. The public spirit of her citizens, in whatever endeavor that spirit is displayed, carries everything before it. Much of this is due to our climatic conditions and geographical environment. We have an assured place in the sun. When we take up a project and push it along we do so with a will against which failure is impotent.

From the upheaval caused by the European war and the consequent obliteration of ancient landmarks, changes will take place that never entered into the calculations of the warring nations. America will be affected by the changed conditions more than any European power, and to her the changes will bring nothing but good. For her will come out of the murk of war an unparalleled advance in the arts of peace. We shall look less to Europe and more to our own country for many of the highest gifts in the possession of man. Among these music takes a leading part.

Hitherto Germany has produced most of the great musical composers and Italy has supplied the best artists for interpreting the works of the masters. We in America have accepted these conditions and our native talent has been discouraged in consequence. The advance of California, previous to the declaration of hostilities in Europe, had already focused thought on the possibilities of Los Angeles as a natural musical center. The names of some of our native singers are already well known in foreign countries. We have, too, some musical composers pushing resolutely to the front. With

THANKS AWFULLY.

BY EUGENE BROWN.

Those of us who have not voted for several hours will rejoice for the opportunity vouchsafed us for balloting on another smear of amendments and propositions of public policy.

It seemed as if poor old 1914 were going out in a cloud of depression and squalor, but, glory be! we're to have another election on December 31 and those who have formed the voting habit will not feel called upon to go before the priest and swear off on New Year's Day.

For this benison much thanks.

It is blithesome to realize that we have counted up the result and put away the tools and machinery of the last. There is always something doing in this glorious country. If it isn't the biggest real estate deal that ever shook the street it's an election—and more often it's an election.

The average citizen divides his time up by using eight hours for sleep, eight hours for play and two hours for marking his ballot—which is a blend of work, sleep and play. Even lovely woman comes on the scene with the franchise in one hand and the vanity bag in the other. The baby is left locked in the nursery crying for a nurse. Bless his little heart, he's fit soon enough. A snap shot of father is not to be had, but him persuing his usual periodical, sitting with pucker'd brows studying a sample ballot about the size of a roll of wall paper. Junior has the rubber-stamp motion, and when he puts down a white ship it looks the same as if he were voting on a dog tax amendment.

With forty-eight propositions confronting the voter on the last ballot and ten listed for the next it appears that a bunch of Indians are rawhired for cleanup. Some suggestions are desirable, some dangerous and most doubtful. About the best thing a man can do is to study the ballot for a couple of days and then jump off the pier. If he is saved by a left-handed life-saver, vote no; if by a right-handed one, vote yes. If you've lost you win. If you stay on the job until spring doubtless it will be your estimable privilege to vote on such questions as: Are colonials refreshment or a crime? Shall free lunch be given to all without payment? Shall picknickers? Shall bonds be issued for $200,000 to establish a municipal barber shop? Shall Belgian hares be permitted to run wild in the public highway? Grave problems like these must be reviewed by the franchise-inested proletariat.

Included in the snappy programme arranged for the next polling tourney is the proposition to create a municipal manager or civic boss—something that shall be a cross between a car and a pinhead. He is to be responsible to the people for the details of city business and finance, while the Mayor shines as a social and executive luminary. The city manager is the product of the new cult of high-rear "efficiency." This reminds me of a man in our shop who was granted a vacation of two weeks for recuperative purposes. He returned to his desk, tired and broke, in three days. Asked how he had accomplished a fortnight's rest in that brief time he snapped out:

"I didn't sleep." Glendale the dweller took a retiring Mayor and made him the "business agent" of the city at a salary much in excess of his former remuneration. The economy offered by most of these reform movements is entirely theoretical. The Johnson administration, for instance, was to be one of bedrock finance, in the interest of the poor taxpayer. Well, the taxpayer is still poor—in fact he is a dog-zone sight poorer than he ever was before. The Democratic and Progressive combination, which sheared teeth over the unbridled advancement of the Old Guard, proposed "Wise and Champ Clark" as watch dogs of the nation's purse managed to spend a hundred million dollars beyond the ablest efforts of their predecessors and sobbed when the faucet was turned off.

The new municipal propaganda contemplates advancing the pay of aldermen to $4500 a year. There is commendable material in the Council as at present constituted, but it is a question in these pinching times whether these gentlemen are worth $400 per head per month in the public service.

Oh, well, we can vote on it, anyway. We appear to be able to vote on almost anything except a proposition to cut out half a dozen election days a year at a cost of from $20,000 to $50,000 each. To that end there seems no prospect for immediate relief.

PULLEN WHIRLS AROUND CORONA IN RECORD TIME

Same Old Story.

SAM LANGFORD GETS HIS MAN.

Knocks Out Wills in the Fourteenth Round.

Was Badly Beaten, However, up to that Time.

Langford Goes to the Floor Four Times.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

Sam Langford keenly disappointed thousands of well-meaning people who gathered in the Vernon fight shed yesterday in the expectation of seeing him knocked out by Harry Wills in a saddle-colored "hope" from New Orleans.

But things turned out, it wasn't any of Tham's funeral. Langford was unkind enough to knock out his sunburned brethren from the south in the fourteenth round. Very thoughtless of Tham. Consequently, it is necessary to point out that Langford is bound to come to some future date. The Black Terror still is custodian of the roost. He has grown fat with age, but not feeble.

The knockout came as the climax of the greatest heavyweight battle in the history of local fightdom, in which the great Langford was outworn for practically every minute of the going up to the instant that he whipped the two punches that sent his huge antagonist spent and unconscious to the mat.

BATTERED OLD SAM.

Thirty rounds Langford was buffeted about the ring, driven from rope to rope like a pugilistic derelict before the powerful, pistonlike blows of his giant opponent. Finally, after the two combatants had been matched full length on the canvas, three times from crushing rights to the jaw which would have felled an ox, and once from being thrown.

Langford was slightly disengaged from the terrific embrace, and by the fifth round had found himself to the extent of taking it by a shade. But aside from that one fash he had been beaten every inch of the way with the force of a thousand pounds of iron.

His movements, once executed with the supple smoothness of the perfect animal, are now labored and ponderous, and there lingers only a trace of the boyishness of the shifty Wills.

His efforts to box the southern Adonis were ludicrous. At long range there always was that long, sinewy left, reaching out like a fat black feather to pull old Sam at arm's length.

Jab, jab, jab, relentlessly that long piston played on Sam's handsomely nose. And poised to strike was that crushing right. When Sam stepped the last round edge him inside, that right would sink into his fat belly. Time and again, Langford, with his mass gliding back and forth in front of him along the ropes, stood ready to pounce from a clinch in the center of the ring. Suddenly an arm so short and big that it looked actually pudgy, shot out from Langford's left side. It was a left hook, and caught the condent Wills squarely on the jaw.

WILLS WENT OUT.

Wills was hit hard, but for an instant did not seem badly shaken. Then the huge body began to reel. Wills staggered slowly back. He was stunned, his senses gone. Possibly there was just enough consciousness left for him to see a meaningless black shape in front of him. His knees bent, and his hands dropped to his side. All defense was gone. It was the picture of a second round.

Langford's right hook hit the jaw. It was the short stroke of a butcher wielding a cleaver, traveling not more than six inches. Already prostrated, Wills' power like a petrified punch crumpled like a wet rag and plunged to the floor, prone in his own corner—the corner from which he had sprung with the little, confident leap of a victor but a minute before.

WILLS ACTED SMART.

The desire to "show off" helped

THE COLOR SCHEME.

Sam is black all over—the fast black of the true Senegambian. Wills also is very brunet in the face, but when he stripped his body was seen to be a burn sienna.

A girl, Mrs. Wills, who had announced until his voice had become husky, suddenly let out a Macedonian cry for Joe Woodman. Joe advanced boldly to the front, and held out his hand. "It is believed that

Sam wanted to know how much money was in the house.

All hands, including the principals,

Managers Woodman and Lain, and a woman, were gathered in the center of the ring while Referee Blake explained the rules that govern modern warfare. All this time the moving-picture operator was curiously grinning away at the camera.

When Langford shed his kimono it was observed that he had fortified himself with a wide elastic surcingle or belly-band, which reached several inches above his trunk and was secured. Otherwise, Sam might accidentally have stepped on it.

When the gong sent the men away, they presented a skillful contrast.

Wills trained to perfection, clean-

limbed as a yard over the short, squat

reach his jaw without a stepladder.

SAM GOES DOWN.

They started quickly, and then exchanged light lefts, and followed with rights.

Langford was grinning confidently.

Langford crowded Wills to the north side of the ring and missed the impact of that right. Lang-

Pennsy was Ahead at One

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 26.—Cornell defeated Pennsylvania in their annual game on Franklin Field today, 24 to 12. In an interesting, but loosely played contest. The Quakers gave the Ithacans a bad scare in the third period when, with the score, 10 to 9 against them, they reversed the form they had shown and before Cornell could recover its equilibrium, Pennsylvania had forged to the front, 12 to 10. The Quakers, however, did not hold this long, for Cornell again put its scoring machine in motion and when the period had ended the visitors again had the advantage, 17 to 12.

Cornell will look upon an easy win as the switch of the lead to Pennsylvania, and then back again to the Ithaca team threw a lot of life into the game and gave the supporters on each side a good chance to cheer.

Cornell did not play up to the smoothness that was expected. Fumbles and penalties cost her the loss of much ground.

Cornell played a wonderful game for Cornell. He contributed most of Cornell's twenty-four points and stopped many of Pennsylvania's plays.

In the first period, Cornell worked the ball to Pennsylvania's 13-yard line and had the home team in the lead. Barrett of Cornell then dropped back and kicked an easy field goal.

Phillips, who took Hill's place for Cornell, fumbled at the opening of the second period and lost the ball on Pennsylvania's 11-yard mark.

Pennsylvania failed to make any impression against Cornell's line and punted to Cornell's 40-yard line. The Ithacans advanced the ball to the line plunking and carried the ball to a touchdown by Barrett. Schuler kicked the goal. Score: Cornell, 10; Pennsylvania, 6.

Pennsylvania showed real football ability in the third period, scoring two touchdowns. Getting the ball on their 40-yard line on a punt, the Quakers carried it on line plunger and end plane, then ran from the end zone to Cornell's 11-yard line. Cornell punted to Cornell's 40-yard line. The Ithacans advanced the ball to the line plunking and carried the ball to a touchdown by Barrett. Schuler kicked the goal. Score: Cornell, 10; Pennsylvania, 12.

The Ithacans advanced the ball to the line plunking and carried the ball to a touchdown by Barrett. Schuler kicked the goal. Score: Cornell, 10; Pennsylvania, 12.

Forwards, however, gave Pennsylvania their second touchdown.

On the Cornell 11-yard mark Avery made a perfect pass to Koons, who caught the ball as he dashed over the goal line and put Pennsylvania in the lead. Avery scored at goal.

A few minutes later Cornell again went in front, taking a punt on its own 45-yard line. Barrett ran through the Pennsylvania team for fifty-five yards and two touchdowns. Score: Cornell, 17; Pennsylvania, 12.

Brilliant forward passes helped Pennsylvania to carry the ball in the last period from her own 30-yard line to Cornell's 11-yard line where it was lost. A 25-yard run by Cornell helped Cornell to advance the ball to Pennsylvania's 33-yard line. The Ithacans snatched the ball to the 10-yard line, and then lost the ball on a successful try at a field goal by Barrett. Pennsylvania worked the ball to her own 45-yard line, where she lost it again. Then Cornell plugged Pennsylvania's 33-yard line for another touchdown. Phillips carried it over and Barrett kicked goal.

Final score: Cornell, 24; Pennsylvania, 12.

WASHINGTON WINS ITS TITLE AGAIN.

SEVENTH CONSECUTIVE WIN FOR DOBIE'S GREAT ELEVEN.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)
SEATTLE, Nov. 26.—With seven consecutive Pacific Northwest inter-collegiate conference championships to its credit, the University of Washington football emerged from the game with the Washington State College (Pullman) undisputed master of the gridiron sport in the Northwest. The underdogs made one round, one never round, without having suffered one defeat by overwhelmingly beating the State College team, 45 to 8, establishing what is said to be a world's record for continuous victories in football.

a loss of many laps, Babcock drove in the hope of getting back in the counting, but it was no use. The pace was too hot and it was kept up. At the end of the sixtieth lap, the field was rearranged down Cooper had climbed into the lead. With an average of eighty-eight miles an hour, the winner of the first Corona classic became a favorite, although Barney Oldfield had just come from the race, in Rickenbacher's pit. Burman was as cool as a garage man out west, but his work on the car was fast and expert, and the first six places were still in doubt.

Only ten cars were left in the race at the end of the sixtieth lap. Aldridge took the lead for a quick moment, had the cars off the ground in a moment, and the tires were changed in a few seconds. The drivers never left their cars, and in one instance the car was held up by the driver.

Oldfield had the lead, but the last quarter was made by the drivers.

Pullen made his first tire change in the fifteenth and when he went out, still in the lead, he was greeted with cheers, and his pit men were loudly applauded.

All the tire changes were made at the pits according to the rules, and the spectators in the grand stand were able to see the drudgery of the race.

Oldfield had only had the car two days and he was not in physical condition to drive the race. He said after the contest that he could have got more speed out of the Maxwell early in the race, but he did not have the time to get up with the fast man in the lead, and held a baug position, only getting the most out of the race.

Babcock, in the Sunbeam No. 18, picked up until at the end of the thirtieth lap he was leading Cooper in the Sunbeam No. 8 by twelve seconds, averaging 98.6 miles an hour.

De Palma was third in the thirtieth and Oldfield, fourth, with Rickenbacher in the Mercer No. 16, running fifth.

The Paugier finished the third with much trouble.

The stop at the pits and the third place with such trouble.

The stop at the pits and the third place with such trouble.

HOW OTHERS FINISHED.

De Palma's time for fourth was 3h. 51m. 81s., an average of eighty-five miles an hour.

Huntley Gordon in the Gordon Special went out in and his time was 3h. 51m. 29s., an average of eighty-four miles an hour.

Sixth place went to Billy Carlson in the Maxwell No. 17. Carlson's time was 3h. 51m. 10s., an average of eighty-five miles an hour.

Louis Miller, in the small Mercer, drove an excellent race and was the seventh man in. At no time in the race did the little machine look dangerous, but Nikrent made a great run for the victory.

The winning Mercer driven by Pullen changed but three tires during the race and Silverton. Cord tires now claim one of the greatest racing victories of the year. The Corona course was fast and the tire suffered, but the Mercers got the speed out of the Silverton.

Huntley Gordon used stock Goodyear tires on his car and made a wonderful showing. The Dusenbergs were second and were equipped with Riveires tires, and Carlson used Silverton Cord shoes.

From the eighth on it was a speed battle between the survivors, and with the last race.

Pullen led at the eighteenth and to the finish. Cooper ran second to the one hundred and seventh lap and went out with broken timing gears.

With a smile on his face the 1913 champion looked after Pullen had crossed the line a winner. The real sportsmanship of the Stutz driver and the members of the Stutz team was shown when they were the first to congratulate the Mercer drivers.

"We can't win all the time," said Cooper.

"It's a sport, and if there was not a chance to lose there would be no chance to win," was all Walter M. Barnevay had to say.

For many laps the men in the Maxwell will signal for Barney to stop for water and gas and have a look at his tires. When he crossed the one hundred and eighth lap, Cooper had to wonder if he could get through without a stop on his Firestone tire.

Coming up the hill on the seventeenth lap, Barney slowed down and had mechanic Harry Goetz climb up and locate the gas and oil tanks.

Again, in the one hundred and third lap, Goetz opened the tanks and saw that there was enough fuel to carry the Maxwell through. That settled it, the Firestone would hold out for the last few laps. Barney would not stop.

The tires held and Barney made another record and strengthened his claim to the master driver's title.

The twenty-third lap ended with the damage was discovered.

Babcock drove three more laps than the damage was discovered. Babcock stopped and repaired the damage, turning to the race with

FOOTBALL NOT TO BE STOPPED.

LONDON, Nov. 26, 2:35 p.m.

"The situation at present does not demand legislation for the suppression of football," said Premier Asquith in the House of Commons today, replying to a question as to whether such a move was under way. The Premier added that negotiations with the football magnates were progressing from which satisfactory results were expected.

The agitation against football because it is interfering with recruiting, continues in the British press.

That speaks well for their chances of coming out next year.

For the Athletic Club it was the only victory of the season. Coach D'Aul was hard work in keeping his largest individual men in practice matches at odd hours of the day, and even at night under ar. lights, is not conducive to good play.

In detail the game resolved into a series of erratic efforts interspersed with fun. Both teams exhibited some ability in running and at straight line plumping, but the advantage greatly in favor of the clubmen.

The game was played as a benefit for the Children's Hospital. As a benefit it was almost, but not quite, as disappointing as it was an exhibition of the great American game.

TUCSON (Ariz.) Nov. 24.—A strong transcontinental automobile is to be offered soon by the Short Line. This name has been adopted for a new road now under construction from Lordsburg, N. M., to Tucson, following the line of the Southern Pacific railroad. The road is co-operating, furnishing material and rock on the order of the Executive Committee of the Cochise County Good Roads Association, which has the movement at San Simon, Benson, Wilcox, Dragoon about 150 miles west, with teams, plows and horses, and spent two days on improving roads highway parallel to the railroad. The road is to be built by emigrants during the winter months of California and passes through a country once alive with Indians, who are known to have been the death of a white man. The road is now being worked out considerable mileage from the borderland auto route that leads to the embankment at Lordsburg, and is to embrace Douglas, Bisbee, Tombstone, and the like.

MERCHANT KILLED.
TUCSON, Nov. 24.—A Mexican, a citizen of Tucson, last Wednesday night, was unknown. Mexican murmur, a storekeeper, was found dead in his store, to be identified as John Johnson, who had been lured into his store by a burglar, the skull being broken. The burglar, who followed day and followed the trail, tracked the murderer eighteen miles below the borderland. There the pursuit was given up. Johnson was known, though Johnson had been a man of means, had only a small sum of cash on hand. The burglar, however, had taken a sum of money and a sum of Gregorio Gutierrez, president of Morenci, stabled on a highway near his home, and whatever he had taken.

LYNN'S BITE FATAL.
TUCSON, Nov. 24.—Lynn, a brakeman on the El Paso and Southwestern, is dead at Fort Lowell from the venom of a rattlesnake which struck him while he was working in the woods. Lynn fell in a faint. Surgeons cut the wound and took away the poison. Lynn was taken by auto to Douglas, where he died.

Holiday Benefit. Aloha Sunshine Club will hold its annual bazaar Monday afternoon and evening at the Hotel Colorado, Twenty-third street and Union avenue. Aprons, caps, fancywork and candles will be on sale, while a country store and fortune-telling booths will be features. There will be cards and games to be won.

Annual Bazaar. And one of the prizes is that said all the proceeds will go to the benefit of life centering in the police courts there often gleam keen, high rays of the violet light of pure love. It shines in dark places today. I do not say that love is blind, but it can be filtered through human brains and hearts to make it seem more real to us, but love is of that transcendent quality which prompted a wondrous creation to be born among us centuries ago at Bethlehem to teach us a higher realization, a fuller expression of love that is infinite. That love will prompt Him to come into physical manifestation again whenever the world may have another spiritual touch, another nightingale of freedom.

Has Returned. The other day, Anna Semple, wife of Mr. and Mrs. John Gandalfo, Sr., of No. 512 Kingsley drive, are home to this city from Ventura, where she has been visiting for some time with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Harvey Waterman.

Out of the Ashes.

BRILLIANT ASSEMBLAGE AT MARYLAND OPENING.

Amid Scenes of Great Splendor the Gay and Festive Smart Set, Radiantly Garbed, Enjoys Consummately Elaborate Function Celebrating Premiere of New and Beautiful Pasadena Hostelry.

BY ALMA WHITAKER.

OF COURSE it was brilliant and epicurean. Nearly 1600 guests assembled to do honor to the re-opening of the beautiful Maryland Hotel which has risen so miraculously from the ashes of that disastrous fire, and no one could question the abundant enthusiasm and good will of the gay crowd.

The dining-room was a wonderful sight to behold, crowded with tables filled to the very limit, and when they stood to sing the words of the song, "Maryland, My Maryland," written specially for the occasion by an interesting young California poet, Harold L. Sands, it presented a never-to-be-forgotten scene. The menu was needless to say, the very zenith of what a menu should be, and as a Thanksgiving dinner of superb dimensions and quality it had no equal.

They had to serve dinner twice over to accommodate all the guests, and afterward the ballroom was "laded to the gunwales" with a smart, happy, laughing, radiantly-garbed crowd of enthusiasts.

COMPLIMENTS GALORE.

This beautiful Maryland Hotel, which stands in the very heart of Pasadena, will be one of the show places of Southern California. Its rooms, which are a wonderland of beauty, were illuminated with reckless luxury and the many delightful bungalows surrounding it were all lit up to do the greatest honor to the hosts.

But inside the hotel itself the scene was one of animated and consummate delight. Friends and past guests of the hotel from all over the United States were there in their hundreds, and many of the governors were going to see alone. We just simply could not think of anything but compliment and effervescent frivolity, distinctly an occasion for exuberant rejoicing. There was a great, noisy, beautiful building shown off to have displayed that pitiful pile of wreckage that was once the Maryland. Mr. Linnard, that maître d'hôtel par excellence, received cheer after cheer when the toast was called by Harry E. Andrews of The Times, and when the recipient of a presentation shield for which Col. Hogan did the honors with the tactful grace for which he is famous.

It was supported in that good office by Messrs. Henry Newby, Charles N. Post and E. J. Pyle, and the hero was led to the dais by little Michael Cudahy in a royal blue velvet suit, the counterpart of Velasquez's "Boy in Blue," a dainty, self-possessed young prince of 10 years, who fully appreciated the importance of his responsibility.

PROMINENT PARTIES.

The Cudahy party was perhaps one of the most interesting. Mrs. Cudahy and her four beautiful children, all dressed in sumptuous art nouveau Cudahy, Mr. and Mrs. Haywood and Mr. and Mrs. Hartzell. The Cudahys occupy a bungalow de luxe in the Maryland grounds which they have recently transformed into a veritable paradise of luxuriance.

The architect of the new building, Myron Hunt, was likewise receiving multitudinous congratulations, for it deservedly chef d'œuvre, and his table included Mr. and Mrs. John P. Andrew, R. E. Peterson, H. C. Chambers and Ralph G. Heard.

One of the largest and most distinguished parties was that of Mr. and Mrs. Woods. The members of the group, who entertained in honor of Miss Dorothy Lindley, the newest of sweet debutantes, and the table was a bower of debutantes and youthful beauties in the person of Miss Florence Johnson, Miss Margaret Fleming, Miss Virginia Walsh, Miss Constance Byrne, Miss Clare Woolley, with Dr. and Mrs. Walter Lindley as proud parents of the honoree and Misses V. D. Woodring, Neill Pendleton, Ernest Davis, Jr., Beverly Woolwine, Clark Bonner, Allan Aicher, Mark Key and Eugene Clark, for escorts and dancing partners.

Other notable hosts were Dr. and Mrs. Walter Pomeroy of Los Angeles, whose party included a bevy of nice Los Angeles people in Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Woodring, Mr. and Mrs. George W. Moore, Mr. and Mrs. John T. Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Edith Holden, Miss Mary Heppe, Clyde Burr and Lieutenant Marsh.

Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Coulston of Pasadena had a distinguished party in the persons of Captain W. H. Tobin, U.S.A., of San Francisco, and Dr. and Mrs. C. T. Martin, the latter the daughter of Secretary McAdoo; Mrs. Mabel von Frage, Wellrein, Mrs. George S. Wilson, Mrs. Mason Baker, Mrs. Gertrude Carrer and Mr. and Mrs. Charlton F. Brockle.

Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Brandt and their daughters were in evidence, as also Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Bratt, with whom came Dr. and Mrs. West, Hughes and the Avery Newtons; and another San Francisco party included Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Tubbs, Harry Tubbs, Mr. and Mrs. Peter Hall and their daughters.

An Annandale Country Club party was given by its president, Charles N. Post, and his wife, which included the Henry Newbys, the McPherrans, the J. F. Posts and the Chaffins. Post and a newspaper party, for which Mrs. Louise George was the delightful hostess, held Mr. and Mrs. Harry E. Andrews, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pelles, Louis H. Glade, Miss Leontine Kim, Miss Ethel Thomas, Henry Fletcher, Anthony Anderson and Mrs. Clifford Tuttle of New York.

Mr. and Mrs. Erasmus Wilson of Los Angeles had a party of eight, which included the E. A. Breeds, the J. F. Fitzgeralds and the W. I. Hollingsworths, and, in addition, the following list of guests were part of the merry, light-hearted, effervescent company that gathered for Thanksgiving and the Maryland celebrating into the early hours of this morning.

HOSTS AND HOSTESSES.

Other hosts and hostesses who entertained interesting parties included: Mr. and Mrs. E. L. Brown, Mrs. W. H. Plumb, Mrs. Ada M. McDowell, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hartzell, Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Hawkins, Mr. and Mrs. James H. Wideman, Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Frost, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Kennedy, Mr. Henry M. Fowler, Dr. and Mrs. A. T. Nichols, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Drury, Mr. and Mrs. L. G. Newell, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest C. May, Dr. and Mrs. Z. T. Malaby, Harold H. Loomis, Mrs. C. Toledo Fierman.

Mr. and Mrs. John Connor, Mrs. C. E. Watson, Mrs. N. J. Miller, Mrs. R. B. Miller, Mr. George F. Gross, Mr. F. C. Bolt, Mrs. J. Sollie Heilbronn, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Shute, Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Thompson, Judge and shippers in this section, is home from him the best markets of the East. As the financial situation is easier, business is more active, manufactory are busy—all of which indicates California oranges will be in good demand this year."

Mrs. E. Spain, the mother of a prominent merchant of this city, has a broken hip as the result of a fall this morning. She slipped on some steps at her home on Wilshire Avenue, at a distance of several feet. The hip bone was snapped near the socket. Because of her age the doctors fear that she will always be lame. W. Levy, a Los Angeles salaried man, was arrested for cutting a corner this morning and fined $10. "I'll be more careful in small towns hereafter," said Levy, after the judge fined him.

Scriptural Names in England.

[PUBLISHED IN ENGLISH.]—England can boast that no other country possesses so many scriptural place names as it does. The name of Jericho occurs six times in the ordinance maps of the five counties and Nairn, Mt. Zion, Mt. Ararat and Mt. Ephraim three times each. In Bedfordshire there is a Calvary Wood, and in Dorsetshire a Jordan Hill.
